Aloha Parent or Guardian,

My name is Evan Rogers and as one of the founders of Lucky Sevan, we are privileged to extend an invitation to your youth to participate in our Youth Leadership Surf Camp Retreat by Lucky Sevan Foundation at San Onofre State Beach located at 830 Cristianitos Road, San Clemente, CA 92672.

The mission of Lucky Sevan (L7) is to use the beach and Mother Ocean and the surfing experience as the backdrop to teach young people how to deal with life's challenges and see them as opportunities for growth in a loving, supportive, and inclusive environment. The youth are led and taught in daily workshops and team building and discussions about communication, inclusion, trust, self-image and self confidence, and physical, mental, spiritual, and emotional discipline as the essential pillars for strength to unlock their true potential and incorporate these principles into their everyday life.

This retreat operates as a 501(c) - 3 non-profit through the efforts of its founders and generous donors. L7 is not sponsored or endorsed by The Church of Jesus Christ of Latter-day Saints or any of their affiliates; however, the foundation's principles, vision, and values are aligned with those of the Church. While primarily a member-created board and community, our youth leadership retreat experiences are open to youth of ALL faiths, ages 15-19 who are focused on service and open to instilling and strengthening core values and building their own foundations through a personal relationship with God.

As a retreat and in accordance with our curriculum, each youth will truly unplug. Cell phone, iPod/MP3 player, tablet, and/or any other electronic devices that are brought, save cameras, will not be used or have access to their personal cell phone to respond to calls, texts, emails, or to the internet during the duration of the youth retreat. I, along with all L7 Mentor Leaders will have our cell phones, should an emergency arise. We will also return devices and/or cell phones to youth at the end of the retreat.

By signing the form below you shall hold me or anyone associated with Lucky Sevan Foundation, Inc. harmless and/or any of its L7 Staff and L7 Mentor Leaders and L7 Participants of our Youth Leadership Surf Camp Retreat and give me consent, if absolutely necessary, to act as his/her parent/guardian in a responsible manner should an unforeseen medical emergency arise. Please provide medical insurance information for unforeseen medical attention, if you have it available, in the space provided on the subsequent page. Thank you for entrusting us with your youth. As we have photographers and videographers on staff capturing images and film during the retreat we ask for your permission to post and share images, videos, and participants comments to further our mission of strengthening the youth.

In service,

Evan D. Rogers
